Omicron Pi Fun and Fund Sets Program Meets June 6

Conduct, expression and purpose is the program chosen for the coming year by members of the Omicron Pi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

The calendar of coming events was discussed at the first board meeting held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Stanley Wright, social chairman.

Officers and chairmen for the new year include Mmes. Ed Litaker, president; George Ross, vice president; William Daniels, recording secretary; Frank Tuttle, corresponding secretary; Gordon Smith, treasurer; Ben Friberg, service chairman; Charles Lewin, sunshine chairman.

The first regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. George Ross, 613 Calle de Arboles. Diana Stewart will present the program on proper makeup.

Fun and Fund Club will meet Wednesday, June 6, at the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo at 11 a.m. A pot luck luncheon will be served at noon. Glada Yost, president, has asked all members to attend.

During the Rebekah Assembly held in Long Beach during the past week, Maud Milburn of Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, received her commission as district deputy president of district 66 for 1962-63.

Olive Veatch will be her marshal. Mrs. Veatch was appointed to new membership committee by the President of Assembly.

Memorial services will be held June 13. Irma Powers will be chairman of the Memorial with Stelma Norris, noble grand, in charge. Social chairman is Alice Jennings.

PTA Awards National Membership

At the May association meeting of Hamilton PTA, Mrs. W. H. Bayliff received an Honorary Life Membership in the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. This award, the highest given by the National Congress, was presented in recognition of Mrs. Bayliff's outstanding service to children and youth by way of her continued participation in Parent-Teacher work. This marks the first time a local unit of Torrance Council has so recognized one of its members.

Mrs. Bayliff served as president of York PTA, Hawthorne, Hamilton and North High PTA, Torrance, and in many capacities on Centinela Valley and Torrance Councils.

Guests attending the presentation included Mrs. R. L. Hagenbaugh, Mrs. James Orr and Mrs. Eric Wescombe of Torrance Council; North High Principal and Mrs. R. D. Guengerich; Mrs. W. Y. Wells, North High president; and past associates from Hawthorne, Mrs. Ray Ashdown, Mrs. Robert Perry, Mrs. Robert Carson, and Mrs. Bayliff's sister, Mrs. Grace Cummings.

GIVEN HIGHEST HONOR... Mrs. W. H. Bayliff, left, is presented with an Honorary Life Membership in the National Congress of PTA by, from left, Mrs. Jack Cleveland, president of Hamilton PTA and Dale Wickstrom, Hamilton principal. The award was in recognition of outstanding service to youth through PTA.

Board Will Meet June 5

Executive Board of the Ladies Auxiliary of Fleet Reserve Assn. Unit 217 will hold its last meeting of the year on June 5 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Claude Fowler in San Pedro.

Plans will be discussed for the auxiliary's general membership meeting on June 7 at Ulabrand Hall, 1125 S. Gaffey, San Pedro.

Election of officers for 1962-63 will be the highlight of the evening. Mrs. Fowler will be social chairman for the meeting.

Madrona

Madrona PTA board for 1962-63 met at the home of the new president, Mrs. Ray Stewart. New officers introduced were Mmes. William Roach, Grant Jones, H. A. Dugger, vice presidents; M. E. Momo, recording secretary; James Wayt, corresponding secretary; James McDonald, treasurer; Mr. Leyman, auditor; and Mrs. James Cassidy, parliamentarian.

Chairmen were ratified and the group discussed fall-out shelters.

Mrs. Stewart reported on the state convention. The board planned a farewell desert luncheon for the teachers and staff at Madrona on June 12.

Hillside

Mrs. Bert Richardson, Torrance PTA council officer, assisted by her husband, installed the new PTA officers at Hillside. They are Mmes. G. S. Lewis, president; William Tyler, Nick J. Dalley, Hamilton Smith and Jack E. Klasila, vice presidents; William W. Howe, recording secretary; L. V. Fritzen, corresponding secretary; Robert Mosher, treasurer; Mr. Robert Burton, auditor and Mrs. F. W. Fields, historian.

The May meeting featured the historian's report and entertainment by 371 Cub Scout Glee Club. Dr. Fitzhugh Dodson was guest speaker. Guy Gates was presented the honorary life membership.

Jeff Harris won the Safety Poster contest.

An engraved trophy will be awarded the winner in the Field Day competition June 1.

Halldale

Mu mus and grass skirts were the dress of the day when the Halldale PTA held their annual carnival Friday, May 18, at the Halldale School. An Hawaiian theme was featured at the event which started at 2:15 p.m. with Mickey Mouse cartoons.

In addition to 3 showings of the cartoons the carnival had a general store and bakery, hot dogs, soft drinks, pie and coffee, sno-cones, pick-a-pocket clowns, hats, balloons, and a variety of game booths. This is one of the money making events to support the PTA and was a financial success, according to Mrs. Glen Patrich, ways and means chairman.
